

ACCESS TO HE CAREER PATHWAY

Fine artist, museum/gallery curation, printmaking, art therapy, multimedia programming, graphic design

Business, finance, marketing, accounting, human resources, event management, operations management, quality control, safety / environmental management, management, purchasing, economics

Nursing, physiotherapy, medicine, dentistry, veterinary, science radiology, medical physics, pharmacy, clinical chemistry, dentistry, dietetics, speech therapy, mental health, podiatry

Psychology, policing, education, health and social care/social work, anthropology, archaeology, cultural linguistics, geography, politics, international relations, political science, history, teaching

Related career options

Art and design, fine art, graphic design, fashion, visual communications

Business, finance, marketing, accounting and human resources

Biology, physics, chemistry, psychology, maths, engineering, pharmacology and dietetics

Criminology, sociology, psychology, child development, education, mental and physical health, social work, politics, English and history

Related university options

Develop important study and employability skills including strong skills in communication, both orally and in writing.

Develop the skills and knowledge required to get a place on a business-related course at university or employment in the sector.

Work experience in a caring role is important for any clinical HE course and will be a component of your Access programme. Maths and physics are required to study maths, physics and all forms of engineering.

Develop your communication skills and your ability to analyse, evaluate and present evidence.

Key skills

Arts

Business

Science and Nursing

Social Sciences